The All Blacks assemble a 25-man training group in Auckland today. The group's first on-field session is tomorrow, Wednesday, 28 May at 10.00AM at Trusts Stadium, Waitakere. Media are invited to Wednesday's training for vision and the All Blacks coaches will be available for brief interviews at the end of Wednesday's session. The camp ends on Thursday.

Please note that the training group does not include all players in contention for the All Blacks squad; candidates from the Crusaders squad are preparing for the Rebel Sport Super 14 final. The All Blacks 26-man squad for the Iveco Series and Philips Tri Nations will be named on Sunday 1 June at AMI Stadium, Christchurch. Players at the wider training group camp are;
